Inspirational Poem –

If You See My Child Alone

If you see my child alone
...please look out for him and I'll look out for yours
If you see my child scared
....please look out for him and I'll look out for yours
If you see my child hurt
...please look out for him and I'll look out for yours
If you see my child with a stranger
...please look out for him and I'll look out for yours
If my child needs help for advice
...please look out for him and I'll look out for yours
If my child is happy or sad
...please look out for him and I'll look out for yours
If my child is discouraged or excited
...please look out for him and I'll look out for yours
But if you don't want to look out for mine....
I'll still look out for yours.
